My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I have often said that the Lord's Prayer is one of the most dangerous prayers to offer to God. Most of us say it so frequently that we fail to fully appreciate the implications of the words. When we say, "... forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, ..." we are opening ourselves up to God's justice or mercy.

We are all sinners in need of God's forgiveness, but God's ability to forgive us is conditioned by our willingness to forgive. God is so just that he will not impose his mercy on us unless we are fully accepting of it. Let me try to explain it this way: mercy is rooted in love and it can only be effective under certain conditions. If we harbor feelings of anger, resentment and hate towards others and we have no desire to change those feelings, we leave God no choice. Because of his respect for our freedom, he cannot impose on us that which we do not want. Mercy by its very nature can only exist in an environment of forgiveness and love. When we refuse to forgive others, we prevent God from forgiving us and we expose ourselves to his justice.

None of us can withstand the justice of God! Our choice is clear: if we want God's mercy, we must work at becoming merciful ourselves. Mercy begets mercy. So, I encourage you to pray the Lord's Prayer with care!

Love, Fr. Leo

Eucharistic Holy Hour!

The last year has been designated by the Holy Father as a Year of the Priest. As the year draws to a close, the Bishop of this Diocese has asked each parish to have a Eucharistic Holy Hour with a focus on prayer for vocations to the Priesthood. We will have that Holy Hour, with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, on Wednesday, August 4th, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. I want to encourage all of you to come and take part. It will include three Scripture Readings, brief reflections by me and time for silent prayer. This will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The year has been under the patronage of St. John Vianney, the Patron Saint of all priests, the Cure of Ars. Aspects of his spirituality will be part of this Holy Hour. I look forward to praying with you there.

Fr. Dan
