An Evening of Caroling!

Please join the Corpus Christi Parish Family for sing-a-long caroling on Sunday, December 17th, featuring Fr. Leo's [in]famous "Twelve Days of Christmas!" Singing begins at 4:30 p.m. sharp. From 5:30 p.m. on, the Men's Club will be providing holiday cheer in the Gibson Center, including hot mulled wine and assorted treats. Consider bringing an unwrapped toy to be delivered to St. Vincent's day care center, and/or a dozen unwrapped cookies to share with your fellow singers. See you there!

From Father Leo

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we begin the Season of Advent, I want to share with you some thoughts that I read about this period of anticipation and preparation offered by the noted Jesuit, Walter J. Burghardt:

"Advent can be confusing. What are we about in the liturgy -- in this liturgy that is supposed to symbolize what goes on in the rest of our lives? The Lord has come, and yet we prepare for his coming. He is risen, and still we ready a crib for him. We rejoice that he lives within us, and we cloth ourselves in purple. Has 'the day of the Lord' dawned or hasn't it? Is Advent make-believe? Are we pretending that the Lord has not yet come?"

The fact is, Advent expresses in symbol and ritual three stages in the human journey, in the Christian journey. Christ has come; Christ will come again; and Christ is here now. We remember the first; we look to the second; we live the third. All three are part and parcel of our lives; so all three have to find expression in our liturgy."

Love, Fr. Leo

Religious Retirement Collection!

Next weekend, December 9th and 10th, is the annual Retirement Fund for Religious appeal. Almost 33,000 religious women and more than 5,500 religious men are past the age of 70.

Though they may withdraw from compensated, full-time ministry, the religious continue to visit the sick, tutor children, and volunteer in parishes and among refugee populations. Thank You for caring!

Watch!

"Watch!" This word occurs three times in today's Gospel passage. Moreover, it is placed at significant points: the beginning, the center and the end. Though this is technically a parable, it is quite short (four verses). The three-fold repetition of "watch" leaves no doubt as to what the story is about. We often think of Advent as a time of waiting, but it truly is a season of watchfulness, a very active form of waiting for the coming Day of the Lord. It is that day, more than Christmas day, that the Christian community faithfully expects, using all of our gifts and talents for this purpose, as Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Corinthians. When we use these gifts in faithful watching and expectation, we become like the servants of the parable, set to their tasks, not waiting around idly, but engaged in the master's work until his return. May our Advent be a time when we return or rededicate our lives and our communities to this work -- the active and diligent faithfulness that the Lord will expect to find.

New Visitation Ministry!

Would you or anyone you know like a visit at your home from a Corpus Christi parishioner to bring you the Eucharist if you are unable to attend Mass regularly? Our Parish is beginning a new home visitation ministry. Volunteers will be paired up with those who would appreciate a visit for spiritual or social reasons or both.
