Introduction to Living the Good Life

7:00 p.m. (Gibson Center)

Most of us try to be good. We want to do the right thing but we often fail—often sabotaging our own happiness—and usually don't know why.

Is there anything we can do about it?

Long before there were life hacks, ancient wisdom from our faith tradition outlined practical, battle-tested insights for becoming the best version of ourselves.

Join us this Lent as we explore specific ways we can live the good life.
