Throughout the month of November, we remember our beloved dead as we place the Book of the Dead near the baptismal font and inscribe their names on its pages. You are encouraged to write the names of your departed friends and relatives in the Book of the Dead. Such a simple act of writing their names focuses our attention on the fact that, though dead, they are not forgotten. We remember their names. They are still very real to us. May their good memories linger on and may the Lord bless them with the glory of his Saints.

VETERANS Day

Please note that the Parish Office will be closed tomorrow, November 12th, in honor of Veterans Day! We will be back on Tuesday, November 13th. Don't forget to remember our veterans!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Exactly one hundred years ago today, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month, at the eleventh hour, The First World War came to an end. On November 11, 1918 an armistice was signed to signal the end of fighting; in fact it had been signed at 5:30 a.m. but word did not reach the front and killing went on for six more hours. So the war continued and then ended as stupidly and viciously as it had begun.

The Allied publicity machine called it the war to end all war; subsequent events showed how false that label was. War has continued with only minor interruptions ever since. What are we as Christians to make of the "forever war" as it was called by Dexter Filkins in his persuasive book on our Iraq war?

In a short while we will celebrate the birth of Christ -- the Prince of Peace. (I don't mean to rush the season, but a local coffee shop has already put up its Christmas tree.) Jesus is the perfect embodiment of non-violence in pursuit of peace. War always comes from the violent pursuit of power, the selfish means to achieve or maintain a position of dominance. "Look at me: I am better and stronger than you; you have to submit to me, militarily, economically, politically. My race, my religion give me the right to conquer you."

Jesus came to conquer sin and death. His selfless love was the source of every good that we as his people have received from him. We stand with him for the spread of that good in whatever way we can. And we proclaim to the world, we have no part in you. Christ is our light and our hope that war and violence can be overcome and that peace on earth may reign at last.

The Campaign for Human Development is committed to helping people create permanent solutions to the problem of poverty. You can help break the cycle of poverty. Please make checks payable to Corpus Christi Church. Thank you for helping!
