God's Summons!

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me." We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Someone has written that trust is "the most precious and the most vulnerable of all human virtues." That it is precious and valuable is clear; it is vulnerable because it can be wounded, it can betray the precious bond between people. Think of the experience of Jesus and his betrayal by Judas.

The slogan, "trust but verify" is false on its face: if you truly trust you don't betray that trust by questioning the good faith of the other. The lack of trust is so evident in the world today; it rears its ugly head in racism, nationalism (the opposite of patriotism) and the lust for predominance among nations.

And lest this be thought a sign of "softness" the pope did not hesitate to mention the brutal war in Yemen, where his hosts are responsible for terrible slaughter and the death of children by starvation. Truth is the necessary companion of trust.

Our faith constantly calls us to trust in God; look for example, at Psalms 11, 12, 62, 86 ("you could look it up"). Our trust in God demands that we reach out with good will to all others in our own work of human fraternity.

AN OLD ENGLISH PRAYER!

Give us, Lord,
 a bit of sun
 a bit of work and a bit of fun.

Give us in all the struggle and sputter
 Our daily bread and a bit of butter;
 Give us health and our keep to make,
 And a bit to spare for others' sake;
 Give us, too, a bit of song,
 And a tale, and a book to help us along.
 Give us, Lord, a chance to be
 Our goodly best, brave, wise and free.

Heart's Flowers!

Deep within the sanctuary of ourselves
 there is a glade,
 Where the grass is always greenest,
 and the flowers never fade.
 Nowhere is a garden sweeter,
 than the one love's own hands tend,
 Where affection falls like sunlight,
 warming and awakening.

Everlasting are the blossoms,
 that are nourished in the heart,
 Little lights and little shadows,
 who can tell the two apart?
 He who plants the smallest kindness,
 sows indeed a mighty seed,
 For through years, like little acres,
 only love uproots the weed!

Upcoming Potluck!

In celebration of the Lunar New Year (Year of the Pig), our next community potluck will take place on Saturday, February 9th, following the 5:00 p.m. Mass. The main course will be provided, along with a special Valentine's Day desert of a brownie/vanilla gelato sundae! Appetizers, side dishes, salads, adult beverages (wine, beer) are welcome. Freewill donations are always appreciated.

Warm Winter Coat Collection!

The Outreach Committee's warm winter coat collection for men, women and children is continuing. This is a good time of year to go through your closets and weed out those outgrown or unused items that just take up space in your closet. Someone will be so appreciative of your donation, someone less fortunate than you! What's needed are clean, gently-used coats and sweaters to benefit the women and children served by the St. Vincent de Paul Visitation Center. Please drop off your donations in the marked containers in the Gibson Center now through March. If you have any questions, contact Madeline Briar at 530-6316 or Lenore McCracken at 530-7304. Many thanks to everyone!
