All Are Welcome by Jesse Manibusan

All are welcome in this place, behold love's amazing grace
All are welcome! All are welcome!
Bring your hopes, bring your dreams
Mercy flows and Love redeems!
All are welcome! All belong!

Welcome all who suffer violence.
All who long for safety and for peace.
You are not alone, for you are God's own!
Together we sing and we proclaim!

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:
"Set out for the great city of Nineveh,
and announce to it the message that I will tell you."
So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh,
according to the LORD'S bidding.
Now Nineveh was an enormously large city;
it took three days to go through it.
Jonah began his journey through the city,
and had gone but a single day's walk announcing,
"Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed,"
when the people of Nineveh believed God;
they proclaimed a fast and all of them,
great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Psalm 25

To you, O Lord, I lift my soul, to you, I lift my soul.

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters,
the time is running out.
From now on,
let those having wives act as not having them,
those weeping as not weeping,
those rejoicing as not rejoicing,
those buying as not owning,
those using the world as not using it fully.
For the world in its present form is passing away.

Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested,
Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:
"This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen.
Jesus said to them,
"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
Then they abandoned their nets and followed him.
He walked along a little farther
and saw James, the son of Zebedee,
and his brother John.
They too were in a boat mending their nets.
Then he called them.
So they left their father Zebedee in the boat
along with the hired men and followed him.

Prayer for Holy Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

*I love You above all things
And I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.*

*I embrace You as if You were already there,
And unite myself wholly to You.*

*Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Communion

In This Place - by Trevor Thomson

1. We are all_ hungry people, we need shel-ter and strength.
We are one_ in our hurting, we are one in our pain.
In our suf-fering and sadness, we are saved_ by the grace
of_ the power, and the spir-it, that is here_ in this place.

We are ga-thered together, as one_ in the Lord.
We are ga-thered as people, who are liv-ing the Word.
Our hearts_ and our spir-its, are nur-tured by grace.
It is Jesus, who fills us. He is here_ in this place.
2. All our lives_ are a myst'ry; we see not_ where they lead.
We are asked now to trust you, and we know_ we must believe.
As our feet_ become Christ's feet, we go forth_ with the grace,
of_ the power, and the spir-it, that is here_ in this place.

Sending Forth The Summons by John L. Bell

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known?
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare, should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?
