Dear Brothers & Sisters,

You must have heard, many times, Louis Armstrong sing "What a Wonderful World." It is a song full of warmth, sincerity, optimism and finally, of love.

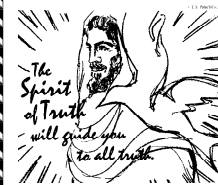

Sadly, a song like this sounds hollow in our world today. The war in Ukraine grinds on, mercilessly. Its long list of atrocities boggles the civilized mind. In this country children are murdered in their classrooms and hapless legislators do nothing to stem the tide, tethered as they are to a cynical corporation that pays them to do their bidding.

The president has spoken of the poison of racism that flows in the country's veins; one could also view it as the worm in the core of the American apple. Or as Jesus put it, the outside of the pot is glowing and shining while within it is full of disease and corruption.

There are two ways to approach this: the rational acceptance of evil existing side by side with good or better, the Christian sense of the silent power of God permeating the world through positive action by his people. We do not stoically accept the brokenness of the world but by our actions bring about healing. "I was hungry and you gave me food." There are many ways of doing this; we must keep searching for them.

Fr. Basil

Seeking to Understand the Trinity!

If you sometimes find the Church's teachings incomprehensible, be encouraged by today's Gospel. Recognizing how bewildered his disciples have become, Jesus says, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now." Then he promises that "the Spirit of truth" will come to make things clear.

Even with the coming of the Spirit, we never fully understand. Today we hear the ancient poetry of the book of Proverbs, singing of God's wisdom "playing on the surface of his earth," delighting in humankind. We hear Paul boasting of his joy -- not only in the blessings God sends, but even in "our afflictions."

Theologians wrestle with the mystery of the Trinity; with the help of the Spirit they make that divine mystery a little more clear to the Church. We understand a little. But mostly we listen, we pray and we ask the Spirit for more clarity.

No Beginning!

Fear not that your life shall come to an end, but rather fear that it shall never have a beginning.

-- John Henry Newman
