hroughout the month of November, we remember our beloved dead as we place the Book of the Dead near the baptismal font and inscribe their names on its pages. You are Mames of the Dead encouraged to write the names of your departed friends and relatives in the Book of the Dead. Such a simple act of writing their names focuses our attention on the fact that, though dead, they are not forgotten. We remember their names. They are still very real to us. May their good memories linger on and may the Lord bless them with the glory of his Saints.

Please note that the Parish Office will be closed tomorrow, November 11th, in honor of Veterans Day! We will be back on Tuesday, November 12th. Don't forget to remember our veterans!

Dear Brothers and Sisters.

November has arrived with its twofold message: on the one hand the sense of ingathering as we approach the end of the year. There is the rejoicing of All Saints and the loving remembrance of our beloved dead on All Souls Day. The last of the harvest is in, with its sense of richness. Read the great poem by John Keats, "To Autumn,"

On the other hand there is a sense of dread. In the final gospels Jesus speaks of the terrifying end of all things: heaven and earth will pass away. There was once a label attached to these passages: apocalypse as a literary form.

Today we see them in a much more realistic sense. Enormous catastrophes are happening as a result of human activity that is causing global warming. Recently there were floods in Spain that took hundreds of lives. The water table in central California is fast disappearing; lack of water, essential for all living things, is a world wide worry.

Pope Francis, from the beginning of his time as the Holy Father, has warned of human destruction of the world that God made and gave us for our growth and happiness. Greed and carelessness continue to plague us.

The Bible, especially the Psalms, tell us of the wonders of creation and the beauty of our world as it came from God's hand. Will we hear the words of warning before it is too late?

Altar of Remembrance!

Again this year, there will be a Shrine of Remembrance. Please bring small framed photos of deceased loved ones to the Parish Office or place them on the credenzas in the Church to be displayed at the Altar of Remembrance during the month of November. Please put your name and phone number on the back of the frame. Your photographs will be handled gently and will not be removed from their frame.

Do Anything!

I will go anywhere and do anything in order to communicate the love of Jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him.

Treasures From Our Tradition!

In 1974, a revised ritual of penance was given to the Church, and at fifty years distance, we still are discovering its treasures and tentative about some of its provisions. The rite reaches deep into our tradition for an early insight: when we turn to God, we are restored to life in the Church. There are three different forms of penance. The familiar individual confession is preserved, but with tremendous enrichment. It is less rushed, anchored by a reading from scripture, and the confession of sins is seen as an opportunity to proclaim faith in God's power to save. In a sense, what is "confessed" is the penitent's faith in God's gift of forgiveness. The priest suggests a penance that may be directly connected to the virtue that the person seeks as a means of overcoming the fault. There are formulas for contrition suggested, but the penitent might even express sorrow for sin and desire for mercy in his or her own words. The prayer of absolution grounds the event in the life and ministry of the Church. Harking back to the joyful dance of bishops leading penitents into the church, the rite now ends with a prayer of thanksgiving for God's mercy, and may include the gesture of laying on of hands. After fifty years, we struggle to claim this rite forged of memory, tradition and grace. History tells us to be patient; we do not always recognize a treasure at first.
