All Are Welcome by Jesse Manibusan

All are welcome in this place,
behold love's amazing grace
All are welcome! All are welcome!
Bring your hopes, bring your dreams
Mercy flows and Love redeems!
All are welcome! All belong!

Welcome all the broken hearted.
All who sorrow and despair.
You are not alone, for you are God's own!
Together we sing and we proclaim! (refrain)

Welcome all who suffer violence.
All who long for safety and for peace.
You are not alone, for you are God's own!
Together we sing and we proclaim! (refrain)

Exodus 17: 8-13

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Joshua, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand." So Joshua did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset. And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

2 Timothy 3:14, 4:2

Beloved:

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work. I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.

Amen.

These Alone Are Enough - by Dan Schutte

Take my heart, O Lord, take my hopes and dreams.
Take my mind with all its plans and schemes.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough_ for me.

Take my thoughts, O Lord, and my memory.
Take my tears, my joys, my liberty.
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough_ for me.

I Surrender Lord, all I have and hold
I return_ to you your gifts untold
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough_ for me.

When the darkness falls on my final days,
take the very breath that sang your praise
Give me nothing more than your love and grace.
These alone, O God, are enough_ for me.

Communion Act Justly - by Bernadette Farrell

Act justly; love tenderly.
Walk, walk, humbly_ with your God.

How shall we come before you, with what gifts to adore you.
Will our sacrifices please you,
what should we bring today?

This is what the Lord asks you, only this will remain true.
What is good has been explained to you,
listen again today.

People lift up your voices; by your actions make choices.
In this time, the only time we have,
show us the way to live.

On this planet of plenty, lives and futures lie empty.
In this world the only world we have,
show us the way to live.

Gather sister and brothers, gather fathers and mothers,
In this place, the only place we grow,
Show us the way to live.

Bread of life will be broken, Word of hope will be spoken.
In this sacrament of endless care,
show us the way to live.

Sending Forth

God of Day and God of Darkness (BEACH SPRING)

Show us Christ in one another,
make us servants strong and true;
Give us all your love of justice,
so we do what you would do.
Let us call all people holy, let us pledge our lives anew.
Make us one with all the lowly, let us all be one in you.

You shall be the path that guides us,
you the light that in us burns;
Shining deep within all people,
yours the love that we must learn.
For our hearts shall wander restless 'til they safe to you return;
Finding you in one another, we shall all your face discern.
