Congratulations to the proud parents from all of us!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

For the next eight weeks, the second reading will be taken from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians. There was a problem that existed within the community that St. Paul felt was necessary to address in this letter.

The Christians of Corinth were enamored with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. But, they valued some of the charisms of the Spirit over others. Paul attempts to correct them of their misunderstanding. He tells them that all the gifts of the Spirit are of equal importance because they all contribute to the growth of the Body of Christ.

Later in his letter, St. Paul takes a very different tact in what is one of the more beautiful and powerful passages in all of scripture. He tells the Corinthians that there is one gift of the Spirit that transcends all the others in importance; it is the gift of love. He describes love as the perfect gift by which all other gifts are measured:

*"Love is patient, love is kind...
 It bears all things, believes all things,
 hopes all things, endures all things.
 Love never fails."*

The message of St. Paul to the Corinthians and to us is wonderfully clear: the most important gift of the Holy Spirit is the one that we are all capable of sharing. We are not all called to be prophets. We are not all able to speak in tongues. But, we are all abundantly blessed with the gift of love.

Love, Fr. Leo

Today's Readings

First Reading -- The glory of the Lord shows through Israel, a light to all nations, that salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (Isaiah 49:3, 5-6).

Psalm -- Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will (Psalm 40).

Second Reading -- All those who call upon the name of the Lord are called to be holy (1 Corinthians 1:1-3).

Gospel -- John the Baptist testifies: The one who comes after me, on whom the Spirit comes down and remains, is the Son of God (John 1:29-34).

Called to be Holy!

With this Sunday, we begin Ordinary Time. The readings tell us about God's relationship with Israel and John the Baptist's relationship with Jesus. Israel's relationship with God is so close, so intimate, that it is through Israel that God's "salvation [will] reach to the ends of the earth." (Isaiah 49:6). But, we know from John the Baptist that for Israel to accomplish God's will, it must also recognize that Jesus is the Son of God. During these weeks we also get to know Jesus. We begin to understand more deeply our relationship to Jesus and what that relationship means for us, who are "called to be holy" (1 Corinthians 1:2).

Treasures From Our Tradition!

The symbols and actions of baptism evolved around the experience of adults dying to old patterns of life and rising from the waters of baptism as new creations. As for newborn babies, at first it was desired to wait until the following Easter, when they could be baptized, anointed with chrism, and given a taste of the Eucharist in association with adults. The Church was always willing to baptize adults in emergency situations outside the Easter timetable, and in time, since infancy itself was a life-threatening situation, the baptism of babies became commonplace. As with the "emergency" adult baptisms, it was required that parents bring the child, as soon as health was recovered, to the bishop for the full menu of sacraments. The very real fear of death for infants thus created a situation in which the three sacraments drifted apart from each other, and away from their original, adult celebration at Easter. Today, at last, we know a great deal about how our practices evolved. This knowledge is reshaping how we celebrate Easter, how we receive adult faith, and how we structure the faith journey of children.

Unity!

Unity is vision; it must have been part of the process of learning to see.
