Welcome to Our Family

The Parish Family of Corpus Christi has been increased and enriched through the recent baptism of:

Andrea Guadalupe Gonzalez, daughter of Laura Duenas and Jose Gonzalez.

Congratulations to the proud parents from all of us!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Christ is risen! Alleluia!

On this most sacred feast of Easter, we rejoice in the heart of our faith: that God keeps His promises. From the very beginning, God pledged to remain faithful to His people: to bring light out of darkness, hope out of despair and life out of death. In the resurrection of Jesus, that promise is fulfilled beyond all expectation.

The empty tomb proclaims that sin does not have the last word, suffering is not the end and death is not final. God has raised Jesus from the dead, and in doing so, He has shown us that His love is steadfast and His word is true. What He promises, He accomplishes.

This Easter, may we renew our trust in God's faithfulness. Whatever burdens we carry, whatever uncertainties we face, we hold fast to this truth: God is with us and He will never abandon His people. The Resurrection is not only something we celebrate, it is a promise we live.

May the joy of the risen Christ fill your hearts, your homes and our entire Parish Family with renewed faith, hope and love.

Happy Easter!

Table Blessing for Easter Dinner

*We praise you, Lord with greater joy than ever in this Easter Season,
the thirsty have come to the water.
The poor have come to receive bread and eat.
Blessed are you in earth's bounty: the joy of the resurrection renews the whole world.*

We joyfully sing your praises, Lord Jesus Christ, whom on the day of your resurrection were recognized by your disciples in the breaking of the bread.

*Remain here with us
as we gratefully partake of these gifts.
At the banquet table in heaven
welcome us who have welcomed you in our brothers and sisters,
for you live and reign for ever and ever.
Amen*

God of all ages and all people, the shadows and gloom of Good Friday have been dispersed by the light and color of Easter Sunday. We rejoice in your power that turns our sorrow into joy, our despair into hope, our defeat into victory and evil into goodness. Help us on this Easter morning, O God, to burst out of the tombs that have trapped us: tombs of selfishness and sinfulness, greed and gluttony, scandal and corruption, pride and prejudice. Let now a new life of divine grace and human love burst forth from each of us this Easter day.

Seeds of Faith!

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history -- the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information "bullet points." Scripture scholars call them kerygma, or "kernels" of our faith. Actually, "kernels" or "seeds" are good terms for these statements since, throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection, exactly how these kerygma began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter "seeds" of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.
